

The Unanimous Declaration of the Thirteenth Amendment

When in the course of human events

it becomes necessary for one people to dissolve the political bonds which connect them with another, it is the right of that people to do so in peace, and to declare the causes which impel them to the separation.

We hold these truths to be self-evident, that among these are life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness. That whenever any form of Government is founded on such principles, and organized by laws, it is the duty of the people to support them, and to right themselves by abolishing the forms that do not conform to these principles. That whenever any form of Government is founded on such principles, and organized by laws, it is the duty of the people to support them, and to right themselves by abolishing the forms that do not conform to these principles.

He has caused his efforts to be directed to the support of the Union, and to the preservation of the rights of the people.

He has caused his efforts to be directed to the support of the Union, and to the preservation of the rights of the people.

DEDICATION

We, the Maple Lyons graduating class of June, 1976 dedicate our yearbook to three great Americans who have played a monumental role in molding our country into the finest form of government in the world.

John Adams, Thomas Jefferson and Martin Luther King, truly men of vision, valor and values gave of themselves unselfishly to formulate democratic ideals, establish just and equitable laws for all and promote brotherhood and understanding for all human beings. Great and honorable Americans first, their wisdom and philosophy have been respected and perpetuated around the world. It would be easy for us to extol their qualities, praise their efforts and commend their conscientiousness and dedication to the nth degree.

Our present society encompassing nearly 220 million Americans is far from perfect. No country in the world regardless of size can possibly be completely free of problems. Our democratic form of government and proud heritage achieved through the contributions, devotion and sacrifices of these men and many others shall never be forgotten and will be our legacy in future years.

The graduating class of June, 1976 will endeavor to make America a better place for themselves and all Americans.

THE FLAG . . .

Every country has its own flag. Our flag did not always look the way it does today. In the early days the colonists lived in thirteen separate colonies, each with its own flag.

The first days of the Revolutionary War, the colonists carried their old flags into battle. They needed one flag to stand for all the colonies fighting together. The American flag was to have a star and a stripe for each of the thirteen colonies.

The Betsy Ross Flag with the stars arranged in a circle was based on the idea that no colony should take precedence. This flag evolved into our present day flag.

All other flags soon disappeared after the Stars and Stripes was adopted, yet the insignia shown on some of them appears occasionally on a state flag.

Bennington Flag

I believe in the United States of America as a government of the people, by the people, for the people; whose just powers are derived from the consent of the governed; a democracy in a republic, a sovereign nation of many sovereign states; a perfect union, one and inseparable, established upon those principles of freedom, equality, justice and humanity for which American patriots sacrificed their lives and fortunes. I therefore believe it is my duty to my country to love it, to support its constitution, to obey its laws, to respect its flag, and to defend it against all enemies.

THE STAR-SPANGLED BANNER

ADMINISTRATION

Be Americans. Let there be no sectionalism, no North, South, East or West: You are all dependent one on another and should be one in union. In one word, be a nation, be Americans, and be true to yourselves.

A Great Heritage

Benjamin Franklin: The greatest man and ornament of the age and country in which he lived.

— Thomas Jefferson

When we are planning for posterity, we ought to remember that virtue is not hereditary.

— Thomas Paine

Today is yesterday's pupil.

— Benjamin Franklin

One man with courage makes a majority.

— Andrew Jackson

Thomas Jefferson: A gentleman of thirty-two, who could calculate an eclipse, survey an estate, tie an artery, plan an edifice, try a case, break a horse, dance a minuet and play the violin

— James Parton

National honor is national property of the highest value.

— James Monroe

We admit of no government by divine right . . . the only legitimate right to govern is an express grant of power from the governed.

— William Henry Harrison

I don't know who my grandfather was; I am much more concerned to know who his grandson will be.

— Abraham Lincoln

Fame is a vapor, popularity an accident, riches take wings. Only one thing endures, and that is character.

Horace Greeley

In education we are striving not to teach youth to make a living, but to teach youth to make a life in the sense that a life is useful happiness and a well-spent leisure.
William Allen White

AMERICA . . .

Oh, beautiful

for spacious skies . . .

. . . for amber waves of grain . . .

... for purple mountains
majesties,

THE STAR-SPANGLED BANNER

"We shall match your capacity to inflict suffering by our capacity to endure suffering. We shall meet your physical force with soul force. Do to us what you will and we shall continue to love you. We cannot in all good conscience obey your unjust laws, because noncooperation with evil is as much a moral obligation as is cooperation with good. Throw us in jail, and we shall still love you."

—Martin Luther King, Jr.
